FALL EVENTS

Our walks and rides last 1-2 hours. They are slow-paced and stop regularly at points of interest. Helmets are required on all rides.

Como Park Bike Ride

Friday, October 9 @ 4PM

Outside Dunning Rec Center
(Marshall Ave. & Griggs St.)

Join us for a family-friendly ride to Como Park, using quieter side streets and some of St. Paul's handy bicycle/pedestrian bridges. We'll stop along the way for some hot chocolate or coffee and a quick flat tire repair demo.

Free bike lights to the first 20 people

Trees in Autumn Walk

Saturday, October 10 @ 1PM

Trotter's Café (232 Cleveland Ave. N)

Dozens of types of trees grow happily in our neighborhood and autumn is a great time to view them. Take a walk with us admiring their colors, learning their names and getting tips for their care.

Free coffee or cocoa to the first 20 people

Bus to the Children's Museum

Saturday, October 17 @ 1PM

Marshall Ave. & Fairview Ave.
(Bus stop at the SW corner)

Bus with us to the Children's Museum and learn the ins and outs of Metro Transit, see how to put a bike on the bus, and show your kids how fun the bus can be! You'll be sure to enjoy avoiding the expense of parking Downtown.

Free Children's Museum tickets and $10 Go-To Cards to the first 20 people

Church Architecture Walk

Sunday, October 25 @ 3PM

Trotter's Café (232 Cleveland Ave. N)

Have you ever wondered about the churches in our neighborhood? When were they built? Who designed them? What do they look like inside? Join us for a leisurely stroll and learn about these handsome buildings.

Free cookies to the first 20 people

Halloween Bike Ride

Saturday, October 31 @ 2PM

Trotter's Café (232 Cleveland Ave. N)
Meet in the parking lot

Join Sibley Bike Depot for a family-friendly ride around the neighborhood before trick-or-treating for the evening. They'll have tips on how to keep your kids safe and visible during the shorter days of the year. Costumes encouraged for all ages!

Healthy snacks and bike lights for the first 20 people

Camera Shots & Secret Spots

Saturday, November 7 @ 1PM

Trotter's Café (232 Cleveland Ave. N)

Grab your camera and come tour your neighborhood's back alleys with a photographer as your guide. Discover secret gardens, tree houses, solar panels and gnarly, giant oaks. Explore different approaches to see and capture the neighborhood.

Free coffee & cocoa to the first 20 people

Biking in Colder Weather

Wednesday, November 11 @ 6PM

Merriam Park Rec Center
(2000 St. Anthony Ave.)

Did you know one of the biggest problems with cold-weather biking can actually be dressing too warmly? Come learn tricks for staying warm without, finding safe routes, combining trips with transit and riding safely in snowy conditions. This is an indoor class but feel free to bring your bike!

Free bike lights to the first 20 people
Free hot chocolate and snacks

Moving St. Paul Forward

Thursday, November 19

4:30-6:30 PM Presentation at 5:30 PM
A Fine Grind (2038 Marshall Ave.)

How has St. Paul become as bike-friendly and walk-friendly as it is? How can we make it better? Come learn about what has been accomplished and meet your neighbors and our local leaders who are advocating for a more walkable and bikeable city.

Free drinks, appetizers and door prizes

DON'T SWEAT IT!
